

Please do not make any changes to the no call list....We have medical problems and Don't wish to be bothered by sales calls...it has been nice to have the peace and quiet instead of phone ringing and you try to answer and they have hung up so they could answer someone else's line ...therefore they try again and again